INTRODUCTION TO POLITICAL SCIENCE

Course Description:

This course is intended to introduce students to the main issues, concepts and methods of analysis in political science.

Requirements:

Students are expected to complete the assigned readings before each class. There will be an in-class midterm (40%), an in-class final (60%). We will read Andrew Heywood, Politics, Niccolò Machiavelli, Prince, and some journal articles as scheduled below.

Readings:

Machiavelli Prince lecture. You should have finished reading the Prince.

W7. MIDTERM on the 6th of November at 17:00 0’clock

W10. Groups, Interests and Movements. Heywood, chapter 11, 244-264.

Final exam as scheduled by the Registrar’s office